3.4. Institutional Opportunities:

- Starting of multi-disciplinary, multi-dimensional courses of relevance
- Scope for community oriented activities and research among rural and tribal people
- Scope for Archeological Projects and Historical studies

Section IV : RECOMMENDATION FOR QUALITY ENHANCEMENT OF THE INSTITUTION

- More job oriented innovative courses like Journalism, BBA, Home Science, BCA etc. may be introduced.
- There is a demand for PG courses in Hindi, Marati and English. The college may consider starting them augmenting the infrastructure for the same
- Short term, women centered courses like Yoga, Vermi Culture, Event Management, Self defence, Food Preservation, Counselling, Folk Art can be introduced
- Academic Audit in a formal form strengthening IQAC will help in enhancing quality education.
- Seminars and conferences may be organized; Guest lectures by eminent scholars may be arranged on a regular basis
- Women-centered programmes and activities like Campaign against Dowry, Female Foeticide can be taken up by establishing Centre for Women's Studies. Women need to be made visible in governing bodies, as NSS co-ordinators and Councillors.
- Faculty should publish more books and articles in standard Peer reviewed Journals with high Impact factor

Jeeha

- Attempts to get 2f recognition to be pursued
- Region specific and socially relevant research Projects to be undertaken using funds from outside agencies
- Sufficient space for Library to be allotted and Library to be fully computerized

I agree with the Observations of the peer Team as mentioned in this report.
